

Dress Code – Women

Distinguished Delegates,

This dress code guide serves as a suggestion to help participants align with the professional atmosphere of the conference. While deviations for any reason are welcome and respected, we recommend trying to adhere to business attire dress code to maintain a cohesive and professional environment. If you are unsure or have any questions or concerns, don't hesitate to contact our secretariat at any time (secretariat@bayernmun.org).

Sincerely,

FELIX HÖLZL | BayernMUN | Secretary-General    CHUNA FACKLER | BayernMUN | Secretary-General    SIMON CLAUSEN | BayernMUN | Secretary-General

BUSINESS ATTIRE

Pantsuit/woman's suit/dress with blazer:

- Dress/skirt: not too short (when standing, it should cover the knees; when sitting, it can end one hand width above knees)
- Trousers/skirt + blazer must have the same color
- Dress + blazer must match in color
- Proper blazer made of "suit fabric": no cardigan or fabric blazer
- No wild patterns, generally no pattern mix
- No white, or gaudy flashy (rather dark, muted colors)

Blouses:

- No (deep) cutout
- If possible, put it into trousers/skirts
- Blouses must cover shoulders or blazer must be kept on

Shoes:

- Heels: not necessary (for flat shoes, make sure that they are elegant)
- No peep toes
- Shoes should match handbag and belt

Bag:

- Handbag/laptop bag/briefcase/backpack
- Discreet colors

Accessories:

- Jewelry: discreet, e.g. no chunky chains / long earrings, no glitter
- No scarf; scarves only in an emergency in case of sore throat -> small, discreet scarf

2025

Hairdo:

- If possible, hair should be kept out of your face
- With open hair take care not to brush it behind the ear constantly etc.

Make Up:

- Not obligatory
- Maintain a polished and professional makeup look by opting for neutral tones and subtle application
- Avoid heavy or dramatic styles such as bright colors, smoky eyes, or overly bold features
