

Dress Code – Men

Distinguished Delegates,

This dress code guide serves as a suggestion to help participants align with the professional atmosphere of the conference. While deviations for any reason are welcome and respected, we recommend trying to adhere to business attire dress code to maintain a cohesive and professional environment. If you are unsure or have any questions or concerns, don't hesitate to contact our secretariat at any time (secretariat@bayernmun.org).

Sincerely,

FELIX HELL
BayernMUN | Secretary-General

BUSINESS ATTIRE

General remarks:

- Discreet, simple and elegant
- Well-groomed appearance, ironed shirts and suits
- Put long hair out of your face, plait
- Well-groomed beard or cleanly shaved
- Well-fitting clothes look professional and calm

Suit:

- Colors: dark blue, black, grey
- Preferably plain: light, discreet pattern at maximum
- The higher the occasion, the darker the color
- Optional vest

Shirt:

- Long sleeves
- Kent collar or cut away collar
- Subtle colors, no patterns
- Match shirt color with suit, shirt should be lighter than suit
- Cufflinks are optional, subtle design

Tie:

- No bowties
- Choose tie knot in accordance with shirt collar (cut away collar → bigger knot, Kent collar → smaller knot)
- No fancy tie knots
- Tip of tie at belt height when standing up

Shoes:

- Ideally dark leather shoes with dark soles (black or brown)
- Color matching with belt and watch

Socks:

- Color match with suit (dark blue suit → dark blue socks, black suit → black socks)
- No short socks, legs should be covered when sitting
- Socks may be fancy (e.g. subtle Happy Socks) or matching shirt/tie
