

Dress Code - Men

Dear reader,

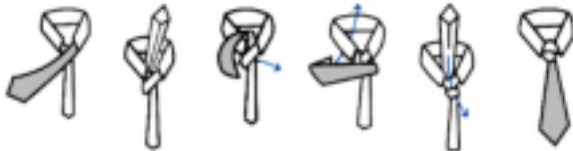

this dress code guide serves as a suggestion to help participants align with the professional atmosphere of the conference. While deviations to some degree are respected, we strongly recommend adhering to at least a business casual dress code to maintain a cohesive and professional environment. If you are unsure or have any questions or concerns, don't hesitate to contact our secretariat at any time (secretariat@bayernmun.org).

Business attire

Business attire is the dress code during the official conference sessions (including opening and closing ceremonies, formal and informal sessions).

General remarks:	• Discreet, simple and elegant • Well-groomed appearance, ironed shirts and suits • Put long hair out of your face, plait • Well-groomed beard or cleanly shaved • Well-fitting clothes look professional and calm
Suit	• Colors: dark blue, black, grey • Preferably plain: light, discreet pattern at maximum • The higher the occasion, the darker the color • Optional: vest
Shirt	• Long sleeves • Kent collar or cut away collar • Subtle colors, no patterns • Match shirt color with suit, shirt lighter than suit • Cufflinks are optional, subtle design
Tie	• Darker than shirt, match color with suit (not more than 2 colors in outfit) • Choose tie knot in accordance with shirt collar (cut away collar → bigger knot, Kent collar → smaller knot) • Tip of tie at belt height when standing up • No fancy tie knots • No bowties

Shoes	• Dark leather shoes with dark soles (black or brown) • Color matching with belt and watch • No sneakers / boat shoes etc.
Socks	• Color match with suit (dark blue suit → dark blue socks, black suit → black socks) • No short socks, legs must be covered when sitting • Socks may be fancy (e.g. subtle Happy Socks) or matching shirt / tie
Accessoire	• Obligatory leather belt • Match belt color with shoes and watch • Subtle belt buckle • Match wristband of your watch with belt and shoes • Rings / bracelets allowed (five item rule)
Bag	• Leather bag matching with shoes / belt / watch • Subtle laptop bags • No backpacks or linen bags
Possible tie knots	• Single Windsor:  • Double Windsor:  • Kent:

Business Casual

- No tie needed, more casual, but elegant clothes
- More colorful and lighter clothing allowed, patterns allowed, still subtle, simple and elegant
 - Jacket is optional, pullover on top of shirt also allowed
- Regular pants or chinos (no chino shorts), no jeans
- Shirt:
 - Business, Button Down, Kent Collar shirts, long sleeve mandatory (no short sleeve shirt)
- Shoes:
 - clean leather shoes, wingtip shoes, white clean sneakers or elegant slippers (no boat shoes)
 - Socks may be fancy, but not too extravagant
- Leather belt matching with shoes and watch